Handcrafted in Ireland Since 1857

Each piece of Belleek is created by 16 individual artisans. From design to production to quality control at our historic pottery, a process that has changed very little since 1857.

Design

Belleek's dedicated team of in-house designers carry out trend and market research to bring new designs to the marketplace. Computer aided drawings and traditional drawings are produced and carefully selected.

Modelling

A three-dimensional plaster or clay model is created from the design drawings. This is an accurate reproduction of the design showing every intricate detail and surface relief.

Moulds

An initial mould will be made from the three-dimensional model, a second mould will be made from this first mould. This second mould this is called the 'case mould' and will be used to make all the subsequent working moulds. Belleek's Master Mould Chamber contains Block Moulds dating as far back as the 1860's.

Basket and Flower Making

Belleek's world famous Baskets and flowers are intricately hand woven with meticulous detail using extruded spaghetti like strands. Each flower is hand-crafted, often petal by petal and carefully hand applied.

Casting

The moulds are filled to the top with slip, liquid clay. After the allotted time, the excess slip is poured off and the moulds are left to dry. As the piece dries it shrinks away from the mould and in time it can be gently separated. The slip has now become clay.

Fettling

Fettling is the skilled sharpening or delineation of the pattern. This intricate process also includes the elimination of seams, smoothing, rounding of edges and the fitting together of parts like handles.

Firing

Every piece of Belleek will go through upto 3 different firing processes in our kilns. This includes the 'biscuit' firing, the 'gloss' or glaze firing and the final 'enamel' firing.

Stamping

Perfect items that have passed quality control are given the famous Belleek trademark stamp. This stamp indicates when the product was made and that your Belleek is authentic.

Painting

Any decorated pieces of Belleek will be hand painted using enamel paints before it's final firing process to 'fix' the enamel and stamp.

Belleek's reputation has been built on product excellence. Only Belleek of the highest quality is ever put on sale.

Back in 1857, the pottery's founder John Caldwell Bloomfield declared that any piece with even the slightest flaw should be destroyed.

Over 167 years later, this golden rule is strictly adhered to. The result is perfection.

Trademarks & Collectors Society

Belleek Trademarks

All Belleek marks, with minor exceptions, include symbols which are unmistakably Irish, i.e. the Irish Wolfhound with the head turned to face one of Ireland's distinctive round towers - the model for which is believed to have been Devenish Round Tower on the Lower Lough Erne's Devenish Island. The Irish harp and two sprigs of shamrock border the ends of the banner at the base of the design which carries the single word BELLEEK in capital letters. The years given denote the approximate date of production.

Claddagh

The Belleek Claddagh Collection is inspired by the history of the Claddagh which goes back over four hundred years when a Spanish goldsmith fell in love with a girl from the Claddagh Village. He crafted the first Claddagh ring for her. Since then the Claddagh ring has become a token of love throughout the world. Its symbols of a heart under a crown held by hands represent love, friendship and loyalty.

Shamrock

Shamrock Tableware, with its basketweave, is a timeless design first created in the 1880's. The simplicity of the pattern is based on the weave used in wickerwork baskets, once a common feature of both town and country. The design also cleverly uses the stems of the shamrocks to shape such features as the handles and details of the design. It remains an iconic collection, one symbolic of Belleek's long craft tradition. Tableware also available with gold rim.

Annual Basket

Annual Basket 2025 - Tree of Life

The Tree of Life basket has been inspired by ancient Celtic Mythology and the importance of nature in early Irish life.

The Ancient Celts depended on the trees for their day-to-day existence as they provided a means of shelter, food, heat and even housed wildlife that was once hunted in Ireland. The Celts believed there was a connection between nature and the life beyond, the tree represented a connection between earth and the afterlife, mind and body and the never-ending cycle of life. It is thought they believed that trees held the spirits of their ancestors. The Oak was seen as a towering symbol of nobility, strength, endurance, longevity and wisdom.

The Annual Basket comes with a special backstamp and a Certificate of Authenticity. Only available for 2025.

Baskets

The creation of each Belleek Basket tells us a story about the amazing art of Belleek Basket making. Basket and flower making was introduced to Belleek by William Henshall who came to work for Belleek Pottery in the late 1860's. Over the next forty years he developed the craft and trained the local craftsmen in the necessary skills. These in turn passed their skills down through the following generations to the present day. Each basket comes gift boxed and with a Certificate of Authenticity.

Monea Castle - Based in County Fermanagh this detailed Belleek Votive represents a local landmark, Monea Castle. Built in 1618 for the Hamilton Family, it was both a home and place of protection. The ruins are on private farmland and can still be visited.

A pretty example of an Irish Castle, the LED emits a soft glow highlighting the hand crafted stone detailing which is also hand painted. The piece is also embossed with a vine of flowers and a lucky shamrock on the reverse with the base finished with a gold line.

The Quiet Man Cottage Votive - The cottage used as the house belonging to the "Quiet Man" was located in Cong, Co. Mayo situated in the west of Ireland. The cottage, then lived in by the Joyce family, was used as part of the set in the 1952 film called the Quiet Man starring John Wayne and Maureen O'Hara as well as then veteran actor Barry Fitzgerald. John Ford who made it as homage to his own Irish background directed the film. He was born Sean Aloysius Feeney O'Fearná in 1895 in Maine, the youngest of thirteen children born to Irish immigrants.

The film received a total of seven Academy Award nominations (including Best Picture, Best Supporting Actor - Victor McLaglen, Best Screenplay - Frank Nugent, Best Art Direction and Best Sound) and won two Oscars Best Cinematography - Winton Hoch and Archie Stout, and Ford (at 57 years of age) won his fourth and final Best Director Oscar, establishing a record that is still unbeaten. The Quiet Man cottage since then has become a memorable and popular tourist attraction in the village of Cong.

The "Quiet Man" cottage votive is a lovely gift to give and a much appreciated addition to any Belleek Collection.

Angel of Protection

In ancient Ireland there was a belief that everyone had a guardian angel to protect them from danger or harm. Thus the idea for the Belleek Angel of Protection came into being.

This cute kneeling angel is holding a shamrock, a symbol of good luck and good fortune and will serve as a reminder that everyone has their own guardian angel, to keep one safe and well for all the ups and downs of everyday life.

Annual Ornament

Giant's Causeway Annual Ornament 2025

The Giant's Causeway, located in Antrim on our North Coast, is one of the most iconic and recognisable geographic landscapes and tourist destinations. Named a world heritage site by UNESCO in 1986, it is made up of around 40,000 interlocking basalt columns. These columns were created 50 - 60 million years ago from volcanic fissure eruptions.

However, the Giant's Causeway is deeply ingrained in our mythology and folklore.

According to legend the columns are the remains of a Causeway built by the giant Fionn Mac Cumhaill (anglicised Finn MacCool). Fionn had built the Causeway to reach and face this rival, the Scottish giant, Benandonner. When Fionn saw how large Benandonner was in the distance he retreated home. Benandonner pursued Fionn and on his arrival at Fionn's house his wife had disguised him as their baby and told Benandonner that Fionn was out. On seeing the 'baby' and his large stature Benandonner was alarmed at how large Fionn must be if his baby was already this large and he retreated back to Scotland, destroying the Causeway on his way back so that Fionn could not reach him. Some of the remnants of the Causeway can also be found in Scotland at Fingal's Cave

Only available for 2025.

Irish Coffee

To enhance the taste of this, most traditional of Irish drinks for you. Galway Crystal have created these delicately handcrafted Irish Coffee glasses.

Authentic old Irish recipe:

- Pre-heat the Galway Crystal glass with hot water (place a spoon in the glass to avoid shattering).
- Pour in 2oz of good Irish Whiskey
- Pour in 5oz of strong hot coffee over the whiskey
- Add 1-2 teaspoons of brown sugar and stir well, make sure that the sugar is dissolved
- Add whipped cream to top. Do not stir after adding the cream.

The true flavour of Irish Coffee is obtained by drinking the mixture through the cream. May you enjoy this drink and many more of them throughout the years. "Sláinte!"

Irish Hallmarked Sterling Silver Jewellery

Galway Irish Crystal is proud to present our exciting collection of Irish Hallmarked Sterling Silver Jewellery.

Taking inspiration from Galway City, both vibrant and historic this collection of beautiful Sterling Silver Jewellery is effortlessly stylish and contemporary, whilst standing the test of time as true heirloom pieces.

Looking to timeless Celtic motifs like the Claddagh, Trinity Knot and Tree of Life and re-imagining them with contemporary elements - like incorporated cut crystal gems, rose gold and gold plating and stacking rings to name a few. Our Sterling Silver Jewellery encompasses the values of quality, design and craftsmanship long associated with Galway Irish Crystal.

Story of the Claddagh

The timeless Claddagh symbol has held a special place in Irish folklore and tradition for generations. The first claddagh ring is believed to have been designed at some time during the 16th Century in the fishing village of the Claddagh, now part of Galway City. Claddagh Rings are infused with symbolism and meaning.
